“Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart. They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways. Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently. O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.”

“We will go where the Spirit of God leads, and teach the Good News of the coming Kingdom of God.”

“OUR COMMISSION”- “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” Matthew 28: 19,20

“And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.”

Exodus 3:14-15 KJV

THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath to the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor’s wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor’s.

Exodus 20:3-17

I ask that before you read this letter, that you say a prayer and ask God to open your heart to what is said, and try to understand that God's Work will continue. Stephen Hicks

Dear Brethren,

Greetings in the name of OUR LORD and SAVIOR, JESUS, THE CHRIST.

Many recent and past events have dictated that I write this letter to you. It is with a heavy heart that I write to you now, and I pray that you will take the time to read this message, and pray for God's guidance as you read.

Most of you know me, and hopefully you know the passion and desire that I have for serving God and sharing the Good News of the coming Kingdom of God, just as it tells us to do in Matthew 28:19-20 "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

God began calling me at a very early age, and as I grew He revealed, through His Spirit things in His Word that, at the time, I didn't understand, but now that I am older, and through that same Spirit, He has given me understanding. In obeying Him, I share that understanding with whoever will listen.

I tried to get my family into the WWCOG back in the eighties, but God, in His wisdom prevented it. We continued serving Him in our home. A few years later, we tried to get involved with the CGI, and this was also prevented. At the time I didn't understand why, but God knew the problems that were about to happen in each and prevented us from possibly being scarred by it, as many others were.

I continued to pray for a place that we could fellowship together with other believers, but it didn't happen right away. I continued to search the scriptures and as the Holy Spirit revealed things to me, my family and I would make adjustments in our lives so that we could obey God.

God led me to the ICG Feast site in Kimberling City and from the moment I walked in, I felt I was home. Because I had seen the disturbing things that had happened with the WWCOG and CGI, I didn't bring my family the first year. This gave me an opportunity to meet a lot of people, including many of you, and after doing so, I knew that God had given me people of like minds to fellowship with. Sadly, even then, a small few could only see me as an outsider.

From that moment, God began opening more doors for me. I got to meet Mr. E. B. Vance, and he invited me over to spend the afternoon fellowshiping with him, and then I got to spend a lot of time with God's people. God gave us a way to open up our home to even more people than just those who were meeting with us before.

The next year, my wife and I jumped right in and began serving, just as God's people are supposed to do, and we enjoyed every minute of it, plus more of the people got to know us.

He continued to bless us in our area and a few years ago He teamed Robert Bruce and I up, and opened a door for us to begin reaching out to the people, not only in the KC area, but in other areas also.

We began having open bible studies, at first, which eventually led to having Sabbath services around the country. In every one of these services, we put out ICG materials and tapes, and we put up posters representing the ICG and the GTAEA. All the people who attended had the opportunity to fill out and request information from the ICG, and all of those requests were passed on to HQ.

God blessed us with being able to produce a newsletter that has been going (Continued Page 4)

(Continued from Page 2) out to over 200 people for well over a year. All of these people asked to be put on the mailing list. He blessed us with the opportunity to put our local sermons on CD. We didn't do it to compete with ICG, but instead to give people what they were asking for. We've never asked for people to support us. In fact, we've always told people to give where they are being fed, and to pray about it before they make a decision.

Now apparently, a few of those in key positions have begun to feel threatened by the Work that we are doing, which I thought was the same Work they were doing. We were asked to stop going out, to stop having the weekly bible study, and they have made several other unbiblical demands that I won't go into right now.

Accusations have been made that we were trying to pull people away from the ICG, and that we are trying to elevate ourselves in the ICG. That is far from the truth. If putting out ICG materials and supporting the Work is considered pulling people away, then I guess I am guilty. If serving God as a servant to His people is wrong, then I am guilty.

If being content in the position God has placed me in and doing the Work that He has given me to do is wrong, I guess I am guilty, but let God judge me. I have never thought of myself as anything more than a servant. I do not desire a position of power, but only to serve my Heavenly Father.

Sadly, in talking with these leaders, I have found that the foundation of the problem is with me, and not with Robert, but yet they didn't come to me, which is not biblical. Read Matthew 18:15 ¹⁵Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

To others, they have falsely accused me of stealing, while refusing to accept evidence showing otherwise. They did not come to me about it.

I ask you, "Is this the way a churches leaders should act?"

I could go on an on with all that has happened, but I would rather stay focused on the positive. The only reason I felt I should share this with you, is to let each of you know that the possibility of this same thing happening to any of you is very, very real. If you try to do the Work, or if you should ask the wrong questions, or if you should question acts that are unbiblical, you could find yourself in this same position. It has already happened to some before me, and I'm sure it will happen to others after me.

By no means am I perfect. I'm a sinner, and I still make a lot of mistakes, and I'm sure I will continue making mistakes, but I will continue on the course that God has set before me. I will continue to study the scriptures and allow God's Holy Spirit to guide me through them.

So much pressure has been put on Robert that we have both decided that we should part ways for awhile so that hopefully we can both continue the Work God has prepared for us. We may be parting, but will remain brothers in Christ, and will hold to the same admiration and love for each other that we've always had.

I cannot handle seeing my family suffer and hurt as they have. We may have to walk different routes for a while, but we, God willing will reach the same goal, and we are still God's children if we obey Him.

After a lot of prayer, fasting, and meditating on this, I have decided that I should leave the ICG. This was not an easy decision, but I can see no way to solve this when I've never had the opportunity to face my accusers. I am by no means leaving God's Church as some may try to tell you. I am by no means angry about what has happened, and I do love even those who have accused me. In fact, (Continued Next Page)

In fact, I believe that God is opening an even bigger door for me to step through to be able to continue the Work that He started with me many years ago. I will continue to reach out to all of God's people wherever they may be and share the Good News to all who will listen. Robert, along with the rest of the board members, felt that I should continue working under the KC Church of God Ministries, so I will continue the newsletter, the website, the Friday night bible study, the CD sermons, and anything else God allows us to do. At Robert's request, and in hopes of taking pressure off of him, he has asked that all of his sermons, articles, and any reference to him be removed from the website and newsletter. If you have any questions for him, please contact him at the address below.

I will remain operating under the KC Church of God Ministries, P.O. Box 909, Harrisonville, MO 64701-0909.

Robert will operate under the ICG of Kansas City, P. O. Box 7214, Overland Park, KS 66207

If you choose to continue to support one, or both of these ministries, please use the addresses above. As we've always told you before, give where you feel led to give. God has always provided for the Work that we've done and I know that He will continue.

If you have any questions, or need help with anything, please feel free to contact me at either P.O. Box 909, at my email address: goodnewsminister@earthlink.net , or call me at: 816-380-7821.

As I've said before, I will continue the Work that God has given me. I will still visit any of you that still want me to, but that is a choice that you will need to make. I've never forced my way into any other groups as I've been accused of. You know the messages that I have preached, and if you haven't we will be happy to get them to you so you can hear and decide for yourself. None of us should ever make choices before we have all of the facts. Don't ever be afraid to ask questions. Don't ever be afraid to address a wrong that is being done.

You are all still our family, and though some of you may choose to look at us differently now, we will not abandon you. We will always be there for you if you need us. Our doors are always open to any of you to come and fellowship with us. This is the way it should be. We will be meeting in different homes until after the Holy Days, then we will look for a permanent place.

I have thought a lot about this verse in Matthew 5:11-12 ¹¹Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. ¹²Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

I am by no means calling myself a prophet. I am just a lowly servant. As I read this though, I never would have dreamed of this coming from within the church. It is sad, but if allowed satan can get a foothold just about anywhere. I will continue to pray for all of you, and God's churches scattered throughout the world.

May God bless and protect each and every one of you all the days of your lives.

With deep felt and sincere brotherly love,

Stephen Hicks

KANSAS CITY CHURCH OF GOD MINISTRIES

Young Disciples in Training

Originally we had planned to do a separate newsletter for the youth, but due to costs at this time, we decided to incorporate it into this newsletter for awhile. We will also be building a youth page on the website to give our young people a place that they can go to share and learn about God.

When Samantha handed me the letter that follows, I wept. I tossed around the idea of actually printing it, because I felt like some would assume that I had put her up to it, but after thinking about it, I realized that everything we do as adults is watched by our children, and they suffer a lot of pain by the choices we make, and by the things they hear us say. So I decided to share this with you in the hopes that we can all become more aware of our children and their feelings. I have tried to help her understand why things like this happen, but it still doesn't remove the hurt that any of us feel, including her. In sincere love, Stephen.

The family of God is about love, not anger, arguments, or dislike. You may think that someone is putting me up to this, but they aren't.

I am upset with the way many people are acting. It's so foolish, and what nobody sees is that the children of the church see everything in the background. We see people splitting up, because of talk. I feel like I'm in high school everywhere I go. I see people talking behind others back making people angry and splitting up friendships that we've had for years.

I get enough of this kind of thing at school. I don't need it when I'm trying to be happy. When I get home no one sees how upset my family is about all of this. I like my friends and family to be happy, and not angry, or sad. It hurts me to see them that way.

We're supposed to be a family of God, but the way we're acting is really upsetting God & disappointing Him. Open your eyes and see what is happening. We've become so blind sighted that our church is going to disappear if we don't get the Word out. Arguing and being in disagreement is keeping us from doing all of the important things. There are so many sick people and dying people. We are losing the fact that the love is beginning to disappear.

I just wish you could put the past behind you and forgive and forget what people have done, or are doing now.

Hard times are coming and we need to come together and become one church again. We may be all over the world, but we are still the Church of God. We are one. We need to make Him proud by following in the footsteps of Jesus, and keeping His commandments.

Please, I beg you, let's just start a fresh new page and be a family of God and Love. Get the Word out and be a family again.

My feelings may not mean much to any of you, but I hope that it might get through to someone. Just getting it to one person is better than none.

Thank you for your time. I just hope that you'll see something in this.

God bless you & I'll love you always.

Samantha Hicks

A Passover Attitude to Remember by Robert Thomas Bruce

Most of us know that the Passover is just days away from now. It is most important for us to prepare ourselves to be in a very repentant feeling and fully know what Our Lord and Savior did that evening in 31AD. This is the only thing He asked us to do in memory of Him and to do it on that day till He returns. It's not very much to ask for what he has promised for all eternity for those that love him. No matter how weak and sinful we are in this life He will not forget our name to His Father.

We must have an attitude of the publican that could not even look up when he was at the wall praying. Yes, from time to time most of us, that includes even me, can have the attitude of the Jewish man praying. Jesus prayed for us and we can read it in several places in the Bible. We might want to prepare ourselves by reading in the Gospel of John starting in Chapter 13 and going to the end of Chapter 20 to recount those last few hours of Christ life on this earth in the human flesh. He had to qualify for the one of the most sacrificing, selfless act in mankind.

The Mercy that Never Fails. When my soul cries out with a heavy heart, Oh God again I've failed, then He'll lift me up to the throne of grace with the mercy that never fails. If a friend is bowed under sin's dark cloud, Then take your brother's hand and petition Him who forgives your sins with the mercy that never fails. Though our sins be red as a crimson thread, and with foolish steps we've strayed, out of sin's dark night He brings a light with the mercy that never fails. I'll sing Thy praises, Oh Lord My God, of the love that doth prevail; and I'll look to Thee, on bended knee, for the mercy that never fails. Those are the most beautiful words to a song that I love this time of year and bring tears to my eyes when I remember what My Lord and Savior Jesus Christ has done just for me, how personal can that be, but also for each of us. Please speed His coming to get his priest and rulers.

This is my last column that I will be writing. I have enjoyed the opportunity to reflect my views almost for 5 plus years in this Newsletter. I wish this Work the best and May God Help all that will seek Him. Our Paths are changing between I and the producer of this Newsletter. I think in the best interest of the Brethren, I can't send mixed signals. I truly apologise for any pain I might have caused my brothers and sisters. I know on Sunday evening April 1, 2007; I'll be forgiven once again. Please remember that we must forgive others before we can be forgiven. May God richly Bless you and Protect you. Signing off, have a Great Spring Holy Day Season.
