MINISTRIES

“And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.”

Exodus 3:14-15 KJV

THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work.

But the seventh day is the Sabbath to the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Exodus 20:3-17

“Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart. They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways. Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently. O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.”

Psalm 119:1-6

PRAISES TO GOD & PRAYERS THAT HAVE BEEN MADE

PRAISES TO GOD

If God has answered your prayers, let us know so we can give Him the praise that He deserves.

Gracie Labeouf:(niece of Judy Hermann) God protected her during the tornado that hit Joplin, Mo a couple of weeks ago.

Alan Perry: He asked for prayer for a growth on his lip and was worried it might be cancer. The doctors looked at it and told him that it was nothing to worry about.

Jason Orbals: God has protected him while he works as a fireman doing cleanup in Joplin, Mo. After the recent tornado.

NEWEST PRAYER REQUESTS

Prayers have been made recently for these people. Give God thanks for hearing our prayers.

Kristin Bettes: She was in a motorcycle accident and is recovering from a head injury and other injuries. As of the printing of this newsletter the report was that she was doing better, but was still in ICU. See newest update in column on right.

Thomas Ko: a Church member from Burma, has been battling prostate cancer and is in very serious condition at this time.

Alan Perry: He is requesting prayer for a new job.

Larry Graham: Rheumatoid Arthritis.

Alice Strommen: She has suffered several heart attacks and the doctors are also having troubles getting her diabetes under control.

Mary Kinchen and her husband: They are both in poor health and need our prayers. Mary's mom passed away a couple of weeks ago.

It is so important that we receive updates on any prayer requests. If we have not received an update within 30 days of posting the prayer request in this section, we will remove them from the list believing that their prayers have been answered.

Shirley Moldovan: She is struggling with many health issues.

Nancy Miles: She is suffering from several physical health problems that are causing her severe pain.

Cordella Epps: Health issues.

Rex Jamerson: He is still troubled by insomnia.

Mary Callahan: She is healing from a broken foot.

Thomas Griffith, Sr.: He has several health issues including bed sores. Pray that God's will be done and that He will strengthen the family.

Phil Dunagan: He is scheduled to have a hip replacement. He is unable to work so they are facing some financial burdens.

Lee Matejewski: She has fibromyalgia, weakness and battles with an anxiety disorder. She is doing better, but not completely healed yet.

As I was getting ready to send the newsletter to the printer I received an update on Kristin Bettes and decided to stop and add it so that you would know her condition.

She is still in ICU and they plan to keep her there until Friday to make sure her oxygen levels stay up in the normal range. She is wearing a ventilator mask for now. She has been able to eat all the ice chips she wants and drink all the water she wants. She also ate some chicken noodle soup. They were able to remove the neck brace because they found no damage to her vertebrae. The swelling in her brain has gone down. She has been reading some of the emails that Brian brings to her, but she can't read long without it bothering her. Brian is fighting a cold so we need to keep him in our prayers also.

Predestination

by Tom Shadoin

One of the most misunderstood and confusing doctrines taught by the worldly churches is that of predestination. Many of them believe that predestination is the doctrine that all events have been willed by God.

The influential Protestant preacher John Calvin interpreted it to mean that God had willed eternal damnation for some people and salvation for others. According to him this was the case from birth and there was nothing you could do to change that fate. Many worldly churches subscribe to that mistaken doctrine.

According to Webster, predestination means, "to decree beforehand." In fact, because the members of the Godhead, God the Father, and Jesus Christ are omnipotent, they can predestinate anything they want to. Notice I said ANYTHING they want to, not ANYONE they want to.

The relevant scriptures on this subject are first, Romans 8:28-30: “And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called, according to His purpose. For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these he also glorified.”

Notice in these and the following verses on predestination we do NOT read that God predestined anyone to damnation, but only to salvation. We read further on this subject in Ephesians 1: 3-5: “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, just as he chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will,”

Not only is there no mention in the above verses of any being predestined to be LOST, but the Bible confirms it in MANY other places in scripture. Two examples are:

2 Peter 3:9: “The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.”

1 Timothy 2:3-4: “For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, Who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.”

Now God DOES sometimes predestine certain people to DO certain things in this life. Jeremiah is a good example.

Jeremiah 1:4-5: “Then the word of the Lord came to me [Jeremiah] saying, 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.'”

And Cyrus in Isaiah 45; 1-2, 5: “Thus says the Lord to His anointed, to Cyrus whose right hand I have held to subdue nations before him and loose the armor of kings, so that the gates will not be shut: I will go before you and make the crooked paths straight; I will break in pieces the gates of bronze and cut the the bars of iron.”

5 “I am the Lord, and there is no other; there is no God besides Me. I will gird you though you have not known Me,”

And in 1 Kings 13:2 an unnamed prophet sent from God is described here: “He cried out against the altar by the word of the Lord: 'O altar, This is what the Lord says: A son named Josiah will be born to the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who now make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you.'”

In the case of Cyrus and Josiah above, these prophecies were made MANY years before either were born AND the prophecies occurred just as foretold. But, again, these are cases of what you could call predestination, but only for a PURPOSE foreordained by God, NOT having to do with the ultimate issue of the salvation of these men.

The misunderstanding by the worldly churches of what the scriptures really mean when referring to predestination probably also stems from a fundamental misunderstanding of the process of salvation in the first place. Let's look at 2 Corinthians 6:2: “For he [God] says, 'In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you.' Behold now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”

Most or perhaps all of the worldly churches believe that today is the ONLY day of salvation. The above scripture seems to bear that out. Tying that together with a misunderstanding of predestination, they believe all who die without "accepting the Lord," (Continued on Page 6)

(Predestination, continued from Page 3.) as they see it, are DOOMED to damnation forever. It is beyond the scope of this article to go too deeply into ALL of God's plan for mankind, but suffice it to say, the above scripture does NOT mean that today is the only day of salvation. If it were, we would have to admit that multiple BILLIONS are lost forever, many without ever having even HEARD of Jesus Christ.

But, the better translation of 2 Corinthians 6:2 would read as follows: “For He [God] says, 'In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in A day of salvation I have helped you. Behold now is the accepted time; behold, now is A day of salvation.’”

Also this verse is quoting an Old Testament scripture in Isaiah 49:8. This verse from the King James reads: “Thus says the Lord: 'In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee:, and in the day of salvation I have helped you;”

To be sure, for the ones Paul was talking to in 2 Corinthians, this WAS then THEIR day of salvation. We are told that by Peter:

1 Peter 4:17: “For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God;”

But, God is not judging the whole world now. For the rest of the world, their chance, their time, will come at a later date. They are simply NOT being called now. And therefore they are also NOT predestined for damnation OR salvation NOW.

Jesus said in John 6:44: “No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws Him; and I will raise him up at the last day.”

In Acts 13:48: “Now when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord; And as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.”

So we can see from this that only SOME are called NOW. And so, you may ask, if someone is called (or appointed or drawn) now, is he or she predestined for salvation or are they exercising free will? The answer to that is YES! God is CALLING them now, but they have to do their part and CHOOSE to answer that call, that is to obey.

The best analogy I ever heard on that subject is that of a train going from point A to point B. Let's call point B, salvation. God, at the time HE deems best for you, the time for your BEST chance to choose to follow Him, puts you on that train, so to speak, and begins the process. God WILLS for you to get to the train's destination, as I said, point B, or salvation. God smoothes the ride and God arranges circumstances along that track, which is LIFE in this case, and does everything he can to make your trip successful. BUT, you can still choose to get off that train, can't you? You can still choose to LOSE or FAIL to gain salvation. You CAN, foolish as it would be, turn your back on God.

In that case, God's plan to predestinate you to be saved is foiled, but only by you. And by the way, our Protestant friends don't believe that. They wrongly believe that once God predestinates you, you can't LOSE your salvation. BUT, that leaves out free choice, free will. That clearly is an error on their part, but that subject will have to be for another discussion at another time.

WHEN God is NOT calling a person now, He HIDES the Bible's meaning from them or more correctly He hides their understanding of the meaning of the scriptures.

Mark 4:10-12: “But when He [Jesus] was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable. And He said to them, 'To you it has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to those who are outside, all things come in parables, so that, 'Seeing they may see and not perceive, and hearing they may hear but not understand; lest they should turn, and their sins be forgiven them.’”

Here Christ quotes from Isaiah 6:9-10. In other words, He is saying, the unconverted might indeed gain a superficial understanding of the Gospel, but since they are "those who are outside," they are not yet called and prepared for REAL conversion. It simply is not their best time to succeed. To be put on the train ride, if you will, that I made analogy to above.

2 Corinthians 4:3-4: “But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, whose minds the god of this age has blinded, who do not believe, lest the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine on them.”

So we can see that Satan, or as he is called, the "god of this world, has his role in the blinding of the people of this world too." When God does work to CALL a person to His truth, how does He go about it?

Luke 24:44-45: “Then He [Christ said to them, 'These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me.' And he opened their understanding that they might comprehend the Scriptures.”

So God must miraculously open our hearts and minds to understand His glorious Word. And what about those NOT getting their chance now?

Revelation 20: 1-5: “Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand, He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years; and he cast him into the bottomless (Continued on Page 7.)

(Predestination, Continued from Page 6) pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand years were finished. But after these things he must be released for a little while. And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshipped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and lived with Christ for a thousand years. But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.”

So the dead who died WITHOUT a true understanding of God's word, will have their chance to live again and have their minds opened to God's truth. It is generally believed that that will be a one hundred year period and is referred to in Isaiah 65:17-20: “For behold I create new heavens and a new earth; And the former shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create; For behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; The voice of weeping shall no longer be heard in her, nor the voice of crying. No more shall an infant from there live but a few days, nor an old man who has not fulfilled his days; for the child shall die one hundred years old, but the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed.”

So for US, as the called out ones, the converted, what then is OUR job today, individually and as a church? Jesus says in John: 21:17: “He (Jesus) said to him the third time, 'Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me? ' And he said to Him, 'Lord, You know all things; You know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'”

The flock, the people of God, need SPIRITUAL food. They- we- need to be fed with God's word. And they need to feed themselves by daily bible reading and prayer and occasional fasting.

And what else is our job, our assignment from God as God's people?

Matthew 24:14: “And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.”

We need to be a witness to the world. Not that we expect that everyone or perhaps even ANYONE will listen. But, it's important that before the cataclysm that will hit this earth in this end time comes, this world and its inhabitants be warned. And what else is expected of us as God's people?

Amos 3:7: “Surely the Lord God does nothing, unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets.”

This verse of course ties in with being a witness. And, by the way, it is not only up to the ministry in the greater churches of God to be a witness to the world, but to each one of us by our EXAMPLE as well as our words. We are to be a LIGHT and also SALT to the world in general.

Matthew 5: 14-16: “You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.”

Matthew 5:13: “You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.”

The REAL truth about predestination is the really good news that EVERYONE now or later will get a GOOD, SOLID chance at salvation! Not the depressing news that so much of professing Christianity wrongly teaches, that some are chosen for destruction and some to be saved. The overwhelming majority WILL be saved.

Romans 11:25-26: “For I do not desire, brethren, that you should be ignorant of this mystery, lest you should be wise in your own opinion, that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fulness of the Gentiles has come in. And so all Israel will be saved...”

Verse 26 would more correctly be translated "Israel as a whole will be saved," because we know that unfortunately SOME- apparently a few, will indeed reject the truth of God and NOT be saved. We can see, too, from verse 25 that God, not willing that any should perish, BLINDS some in order to call some Gentiles, that is non- Israelites, now. There is indeed FAIRNESS with our precious Lord.

Many mistakenly call this doctrine a SECOND chance. But is it really? Scripture shows that one must KNOWINGLY reject the way of God in order to be lost. Merely HEARING a street corner preacher, or having a tract shoved into one's hand is NOT having your "chance" to understand the truth.

Hebrews 10:26-29: “For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries. Anyone who has rejected Moses' law dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. Of how much worse punishment, do you suppose, will he be thought worthy who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified a common thing, and insulted the spirit of grace?”

So to sum up the issue of predestination:

1. Predestination has to do with being CALLED, not lost or saved.
2. ALL sooner or later will be called and will get their chance to be saved.
3. Almighty God INTENDS for you and I to be saved, does ALL He can to insure it, to make it happen.
4. It is, however, YOUR decision too as to whether you succeed or not.

TRULY good news indeed!
